

Draw the portrait of one of your favorite Presidents
Or First Ladies. What would he/she wear? Would you show a special event or date in history?
Would she/he be sitting, standing, on a horse, in a car?
Would they be alone?
What symbols would you include?

Symbols President Washington's Portrait by Gilbert Stuart:

Civilian Attire; Sword; Great Seal on Chair; Portico; Rainbow; Eagle table leg; Inkwell;

Books on Table: Federalists Journal of Congress ;

President Abraham Lincoln by George P. Healy:
President Lincoln is alone and seated. About what might he be thinking?

FYI: Dolley Madison met Abraham Lincoln on July 4, 1848 during the cornerstone laying ceremony for the Washington Monument.
